SCHEDULE 16

COMMUNICATION ROLES

The Authority and Project Co will, throughout the Term, share responsibilities for communications, including community relations, stakeholder consultation, media relations and emergency communications on the terms set out in this Schedule.

1. GENERAL

- 1.1 Project Co will be guided by the Authority's best practices regarding communications. Unless otherwise specified by the Authority, the governing document relating to best practices will be the disclosure guidance document entitled "Procurement Related Disclosure for Major Infrastructure Projects" posted at www.Partnershipsbc.ca.
- 1.2 Project Co will consult and cooperate with the Authority regarding communications activities relating to the Project.
- 1.3 The desired outcome of communications activities is to inform and involve the public and other stakeholders about the progress, value and benefits of the Project and to develop and maintain support for the Project.
- 1.4 Communications strategies and plans involving the interests of both parties are to be prepared on a joint basis, with one party taking a lead role and the other a supporting role, as described in this Schedule.
- 1.5 Where communications strategies and plans involve the interests of both parties, each party will give the other a reasonable opportunity (taking into account the need for timely communications) to consider communications strategies and plans initiated by the other and, if information is supplied by a party, it should include or be accompanied by sufficient explanatory or other material to enable the information to be properly considered.
- 1.6 Project Co will consider and, acting reasonably, take into account, public and other stakeholder input in regard to its plans for the Design, the Construction and the Services.
- 1.7 This Schedule is a guideline and may be amended by mutual agreement. Except for non-compliances with this Schedule by Project Co that constitute Persistent Breach, non-compliance with this Schedule by Project Co will not constitute a Project Co Material Breach and non-compliance with this Schedule by the Authority will not constitute an Authority Material Breach.
- 1.8 No communication regarding the subject matter of a Dispute, including one resolved under the Dispute Resolution Procedure, will be made without the prior written consent of the Authority or Project Co, as the case may be, unless otherwise ordered under the Dispute Resolution Procedure.
- 1.9 Project Co acknowledges that the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (British Columbia) applies to the Authority, that nothing in this Schedule limits any requirements for compliance with that Act and that the Authority may be required to make disclosure of information under that Act.

- 1.10 Project Co acknowledges that the Authority will be free to disclose (including on Websites) this Agreement and any and all terms hereof, except for those portions that would not be required to be disclosed under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (British Columbia). The Authority will consult with Project Co prior to such disclosure.
- 1.11 Except for Section 1.10, this Schedule is subject to the parties' obligations in respect of Confidential Information and Personal Information pursuant to Sections 17.1, 17.2 and 17.3 of this Agreement.

2. CATEGORIES OF COMMUNICATIONS

The following categories of communications are covered by this Schedule and each category applies during the Construction Period and the Operating Period:

- (a) Communications Planning: developing plans and strategies in support of the Project, including integrating the categories of communication listed in Section 6 of this Schedule;
- (b) Community Relations: keeping all key audiences (as identified in communications plans) informed, including providing overall Project information, including information about schedule, design, construction (including traffic management), facilities management and other services, using any and all appropriate communications tools and tactics;
- (c) Consultation: engaging in discussions with Project stakeholders throughout each period;
- (d) Media Relations: providing media with Project updates and responding to issues raised by the media; and
- (e) Emergency Communications: preparing and implementing crisis communications planning and preparedness.

3. LEAD AND SUPPORTING ROLES

Within each category of communications set out in Section 6 of this Schedule, Project Co will play either a lead or supporting role, working with the Authority to achieve the desired communications outcomes. These roles may be different for the different periods of the Project.

For all categories of communication, and whether communication occurs as part of a lead or supporting role, no advertising that involves payment, by Project Co, to a third party may include the Authority or the Project unless Project Co obtains the prior consent of the Authority, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

4. LEAD RESPONSIBILITIES

The following is an overview of the responsibilities associated with lead roles:

- (a) developing a communications plan to include all activities for which the party is identified as lead. Communications plans should be updated annually from the Effective Date.
